New Season

Magion

Somebodyâ€™s speaking but I canâ€™t hear a sound
Itâ€™s spinning all around and this noise is so deafening
Opening eyes to find this isnâ€™t a dream
And everything on TV is real life, itâ€™s all happening
Look in my heart to find the worst that Iâ€™ve seen
Still bears resemblance to me though I try

Itâ€™s so hard to breathe
When weâ€™re swimming in catastrophe
And itâ€™s so hard to see

So will You come to me and change my history?
When You speak my name, everything is changing
'Cause every burden I bring feels like itâ€™s missing its sting
When Iâ€™m with You, itâ€™s like a new season of life
Itâ€™s like a new season of life
Itâ€™s like a new season of life

Open my soul and then You might see the truth
That Iâ€™m still too scared to move 'cause fear is paralyzing me
Still all this reaching is stretching my doubts
Iâ€™m growing closer without my pride
And itâ€™s so hard to see

Will You come to me and change my history?
When You speak my name, everything is changing
'Cause every burden I bring feels like itâ€™s missing its sting
When Iâ€™m with You, itâ€™s like a new season of life
Itâ€™s like a new season of life
Itâ€™s like a new season of life

Come to me and change my history

Come to me and change my history
When You speak my name, everything is changing
'Cause every burden I bring feels like itâ€™s missing its sting
When Iâ€™m with You, itâ€™s like a new season of life
Itâ€™s like a new season of life
Itâ€™s like a new season of life
