Gorgeous Nightmare

Escape the Fate

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I've got another confession to make
So complicated let me try to explain
Don't want this feeling to go away
So it stays, it stays, it stays, it staysIs it the way that you talk
That's causing me to freak?
Is it the way that you laugh
That's making my heart beat?Is it the way that you kiss?
It's gotta be the way that you taste
You taste, you taste, you tasteYou're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh damn, it's never seemed to go away
You make me feel brand new, yeah
We resurrect, it's like I've come back to life
I feel so alive, I feel so aliveFirst impressions are hard to erase
It's in my mind and it just won't go away
Maybe I'm playing my cards way too safe
I've gotta change, change, change, changeIs it the way that you feel against my body?
Is it the way that you act so damn naughty?
Is it the way that you shake?
When your hips move to the bass
The bass, the bass, the bassYou're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh damn, it's never seemed to go away
You make me feel brand new, yeah
We resurrect, it's like I've come back to life
I feel so alive, I feel so alive, I feel so aliveYou're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh damn, it's never seemed to go away
You make me feel brand new, yeah
We resurrect, it's like I've come back to lifeYou're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh damn, it don't go away
You make me feel brand new, yeah
We resurrect, it's like I've come back to life
I feel so alive, I feel so alive
I feel so alive, I feel so alive
