You Again (Temposhark Remix)

Kate Havnevik

I can't go anywhere
Without feeling strange
I can't see anyone
Everything has changed'Cause every time I close my eyes
It's you again, you again
And every time I hear your voice
I don't know what to do with myselfYou, you, youTum time, valentine
Waiting for my chance
Easy chat up lines
But do you dare to dance?'Cause every time I close my eyes
It's you again, you again
And every time I hear your voice
I don't know what to do with myselfYou, you, you
Don't know what to do with myself
You, you, you
Don't know what to do with myselfDie, apart or die
Die, am I
Die, apart or die
Do I for my'Cause every time I close my eyes
It's you again, you again
And every time I hear your voice
I don't know what to do with myself
Don't know what to do with myself
I don't know what to do with myself
