Company of Strangers

James Reyne

So far away you know you're lost little girl
You're really not looking your best
Close your eyes, you're in your own little world
The semi trailers you know they slip byAnd I never wanted to stay
I'm only dancing with danger
And I could have walked out that wayDon't give me reasons
I'm in the company of strangers
I'm in the company of strangersIt's not easy to see when your home is so far
And now the big house is all you're gonna need
Another cry in the jungle bar, don't you know?I'm in the company of strangersWhoa oa oa oa oa
Whoa oa oa
Whoa oa oa oa oa
Whoa oa oaAnd I never wanted to stay
I'm only dancing with danger
And I could have walked out that wayDon't give me reasons
I'm in the companyAnd I never wanted to stay
I'm only dancing with danger
And I could have walked out that wayDon't give me reasons
I'm in the company
Don't give me reasons
I'm in the companyDon't give me reasons
I'm in the company of strangers
