Gratification To Concrete

Robert Pollard

She brings gratification to concrete
Crown to the crucible complete
Now is what she brings
Now is what she brings
Gratification to concrete
Crown to the crucible complete
Now is what she brings
Now is what she bringsAnd she said "wow" a hundred times
Not just for people people
Who move like vampires and realize
That they are guilty
At the stations generations
Live like kings and queens tomorrow
It's a blast it just won't last too long
In my adventure of making two wrongs alright
Now that you're laughing
She don't treat people like they don't count
No test to what they amountShe brings gratification to concrete
Crown to the crucible complete
Now is what she brings
Now is what she bringsAnd go your days beyond your nights
Positions passed at last and yet
A presence tense, to whince
Commence into a system gone haywire
But let's say "wow" awhile and smile
Until tomorrow
It's a blast it just won't last too long
In my adventure of making two wrongs alright
Now that you're laughing
She don't treat people like they don't count
No test to what they amountGratification to concrete
Gratification to concrete
Gratification to concrete
