Lana

Mungo Jerry

I've seen you in the station bar drinking strong black coffee
Forget hell I've got your name
No lie, your face's got me.
Expensive clothes it meant to be your size ... no money
Single girl, don't look away - your left hand bears no jewelry

Oh Lana! Lana! Lana! Lana! ...
I only live my life for you...

Your father pick you up all night
His car is always glimmy
When I send a smile your way
You make you do not see me.
So you are with a man last night
He looked to be your brother
So I speaked to you - OK,
I wish to be your lover.

Oh Lana! Lana! Lana! Lana! ...
I only live my life for you...

My blood is of so many colors,
The ring on my hand - solid gold.
No fool I was born a gipsy.
My mother is queen of a soul.

If I were a candy man,
If I were I tailor,
If I have to travel ...
If I wore a jailer.
Or a begger on the street
.....
I could be a genius,
Or I coul be a .....

Oh Lana! Lana! Lana! Lana! ...
I only live my life for you...

I give my very life to you and show you a diamond

Feel the ... upon the hill
Where .... all around us
Singing ... by the Lord
.....
Kissing your sweet tender lips
Living will be cloudy...

Oh Lana! Lana! Lana! Lana! ...

Lyrics submitted by Svetlana Kantar.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/