Blessed

Cry For Silence

I welcome the sun,
the clouds and rain,
the wind that sweeps the sky clean and lets the sun shine again. this is the most magnificent life has ever been.
here is heaven and earth and the brilliant sky in between.

blessed is this life
and I'm gonna celebrate being alive.

I dwell in the darkness
I let in the light
I sleep in the afternoon and become the noise in the night I trespass in temptation suffered in sacrifice but I awake each day with a new sunrise blessed is this life, oh
