Midnight

Jump, Little Children

In here it's always midnight
In here it's always dark
In here there's always a shadow cast
By these florescent lightsIn here forever is a dying myth
In here forever is a lie
In here forever is a space between
Your every breath
MidnightIt's never dark enough
To hide us from tomorrow
Never dark enough
To keep us in shadow
In here
Midnight is alwaysIn here I still here you whispering
In here I hear your fragile voice
In here I hear your laughter floating down
Like paper rain
MidnightIt's never dark enough
To hide us from tomorrow
Never dark enough
To keep us in shadow
In here, midnightMidnightIt's never dark enough
To hide us from tomorrow
Never dark enough
To keep us in shadow
In here
In here
In here
It's always midnight
