Suddenly

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

I am so high, I can't look back
I'm waiting for what comes next
You can't live this life for me
But I can't, you have control
I can't last, tonight turns to day
I can't find, the words to say
It all stops when kingdom comes
But you can't, I hear and you're great
Suddenly, I was free
You left me without anything
Suddenly, I was free
You shot me in front of everything
Now, you're all I need
Blue shadows behind your eyes
I wonder who you disguise?
Through windows behind the sky
I wonder who you will find?
I'm so tired, I can't get back
I'm walking to still connect
With something that I had loved
Well, I can't, you have control
Suddenly, I was free
You left me without anything
And suddenly, I was free
You shot me in front of everything
Now, you're all I see
Blue shadows behind your eyes
I wonder who you disguise?
Through windows behind the sky
I wonder who you will find?
