Death Dies Hard

Deathstars

Watch the vultures as they open their eyes
Can you please, please give them something
Play the heavens with the devil's dice
Can you serve them, feed 'em with your kingYou've never seen anything like this before
You will never see a clockwork sunrise no moreI bring no shelter 'cause I...I will deny you
This world belongs to me
You try to fake it
But all wounds are there to seeDeath dies hard
Watch as the devil gets sold to me
Death dies hard
Enter hell and use the bone of god as keyThe lotus withers as the insects thrive
Can you please, please give them something
The pulse of darkness brings god alive
Can your black crimes be carried on white wingsYou've never felt anything like this before
A sulphur storm brings the victims upon the shoreI bring no shelter 'cause I...I will deny you
This world belongs to me
You try to fake it
But all wounds are there to seeDeath dies hard
Watch as the devil gets sold to me
Death dies hard
Enter hell and use the bone of god as keyI...I will deny you
This world belongs to me
You try to fake it
But all wounds are there to seeDeath dies hard
Watch as the devil gets sold to me
Death dies hard
Enter hell and use the bone of god as key
