Glacier

Difleger

you're on your head and you've been there all the wile and if you'd stand up now you'd find yourself all upside down and you fade away
for the first time
now you're slipping through the floor you insist on going back for more put all your dreams away fading out like yesterday it's over now
you can't chip away the ice it's here it's underneath you find it smiling at you it's ... for the day
there's always been ice on my face
so put all your dreams away

it's time you fade away it's not a glacier
it's far away from staying it's light years away
it's always been ice
it's always been ice
it's always been ice
on my face
oh oh oh
it's been ice
oh oh oh
it's always ice
oh oh oh
it's always been
oh oh oh
it's always ice
oh oh oh
