Special Day

Jaheim

Breakfast when you wake
Along with the candle on a cupcake that I baked
Catering you is much of my oblige
Instead of stress and mirageYoure the beat to my heart
Heres a rose with no thorns on the stem, youre a gem
Youre the reason, why Ive, found one hundred ways to Adore you three times a day, morning noon and night, its for youTodays a special day for you
These are a few
(These are a few, these are a few)
Things Id like to do for you
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahTodays a special day for you, baby
These are a few
(These are a few, these are a few)
Things Id like to share with you
Na, na, na, na, na, na, now, babyIm a fool for love today, honest, Ill do
Anything you need me to, uh, huh
From sun rise to sun set on this ordinary day
You can have it all your wayThats my job, youre a heart throb
Loves the reason, why I got it, set a you before me
So we can see what its like, morning, noon and night
Its for youTodays a special day for you
These are a few
(These are a few, these are a few)
Things Id like to do for you
(Would you like that? Yeah)Todays a special day for you
These are a few
(These are a few, these are a few)
Things Id like to share with youIt doesnt matter what the weather is, oh, no
From this point on, Ill share with you the break of spring
An angel kissed the day, we fell in love, oh
So to you, the sweetness of, oh, dear my life
Just in case, oh, yeah, yeah, yeah"Would you like that?"
"Yeah, thats cool"
"What you wanna do, babe?"
"I dont know"
"Think about it""Im thinking"
"Think about it, ooh"
"Im thinking"
"Ooh, Im a fool for love today"Honest, I, honest, I, honest, I, honest, Ill do

Anything you want me to, special day for youTodays a special day for you
These are a few
(These are a few, these are a few)
Things Id like to share with you
Special day for you
