Reborn

Cham O'

If you believe in my love
If you believe in my pain
If you believe in my jealousy
If you believe in my faith
If you believe in my hope
If you believe in my misery
If you believe in my way
If you believe in my word
If you believe in my honesty
If you believe in my life
If you believe in my death
If you believe in my memory
I?ll crush the chains that bind
And make you feel you?re born again
(Reborn again, reborn again)
Your freed heart, soul and mind
Will make you feel you?re born again
If you believe in my grace
If you believe in my peace
If you believe in my nobility
If you believe in my power
If you believe in my strength
If you believe in humility
If you believe in my way
If you believe in my word
If you believe in my honesty
If you believe in my life
If you believe in my death
If you believe in my memory
I?ll crush the chains that bind
And make you feel you?re born again
(Reborn again, reborn again)
Your freed heart, soul and mind
Will make you feel you?re born again
Yeah, born again
I?ll crush the chains that bind
And make you feel you?re born again
(Reborn again, reborn again)
Your freed heart, soul and mind

Will make you feel you?re born again
Yeah, born again
Your freed heart, soul and mind
Will make you feel you?re born again
Yeah, born again
