Idiot

James Fauntleroy

(verse 1)i cut my phone on shoulda been cut off way that you cut off now from me i spent anotha night crying in da bed just lying the way that you lied to me and maybe damn i even put my plans off just so you can put off you an me i gave you everything an you gave me nothing you gave me nothing but history yea(hook)i used to be caught in the middle between the tricks and the games and your riddles
and now im starting to see just a little im wondering(chorus)what kind of idiot sleeps on this heart of mine what kind of idiot aint gonna realize that im worth the timei know you not stupid i know im not stupid so what am i doin
doin
what kind of idiot falls for it everytime so what kind of idiot am i am i am i i

what made me think that i be the first one should of been the first one to say goodbye you broke my heart back there i let it go back there should of venture back when you made me cry now that its over how will i get over all this dependity of you an i i gave u everything shoulda gave you nothin damn what of waste of time(hook)i used to be caught in the middle between the tricks and the games

and your riddles
