Rumours in the Air

Night Ranger

Used to call me by my first name
And now you never even call me at all
Used to say I was your only flame
It was so simple, I believed it allNow I hear you've got a new friend and lover
Who keeps you warm on the cool cool nights
There's a rumor in the air don't seem rightRumors in the air like a thief in the night
Taking more than their share
Taking more than their right
Rumors in the air like a thief in the night
Rumors, rumors in the airUsed to call me when you felt the pain
Now you never even feel it at all
Used to swear that we would never change
And like a fool I believed it allNow you say you had a weekend of trouble
As you stare me down with those cool cool eyes
There's a rumor in the air don't seem rightRumors in the air like a thief in the night
Taking more than their share
Taking more than their right
Rumors in the air like a thief in the night
Rumors, rumors in the airUsed to call me by my first name
And now you never even call me at all
Now you say that I'm the one to blame
Doesn't matter how I feel at allWell I hear you've got a new friend and lover
You'll take him down it's so plain to see
Well there's a rumor in the air killing meRumors in the air like a thief in the night
Taking more than their share
Taking more than their right
Rumors in the air like a thief in the night
Rumors, rumors in the airRumors in the air, rumors in the air
Rumors in the air
Rumors, rumors, rumors
Rumors in the air
