The Numbskulls

Mortal eyes, looking through a veil of dreams
Hypnotized, an ever living soul with wings
Think you're God, but you never had control
Think you're loved but there's no one there at all
My colors all run dry and now I see the world in
Black and white
It's too late now, it's time to kiss the rainbow
Goodbye
Poison tears running from a palsied face
Satan nears, descending on the human race
Think you're God, don't you wish you had control
Think you're loved but there's no one there at all
My colors all run dry and now I see the world in
Black and white
It's too late now, it's time to kiss the rainbow
Goodbye
Listen to the wind, hear the gospel blow
Tell me that you don't hear what I'm hearing
And I will let you go
Look up to the sky, put your trust in me
Tell me that you ain't feelin' what I'm feelin'
And I will set you free
Look into the flame, see the embers glow
Tell me that you don't see what I'm seein'
And I will let you go
Taste the holy blood, running from my veins
Tell me that you don't feelin' what I'm feelin'
And I'll take away the pain
Yes I will now, oh yes I will, oh
Oh it's time to kiss the rainbow goodbye
