The Enforcer

Monster Truck

I'm not looking for a fight
If you come at me tonight
I'm gonna make you sorry
Don't try my patience son
There's a reason i'm the one
That people stand aside for
So just play the game you know
We wont go toe to toe
Tomorrow you'll feel better
You know this ain't a road
For you to freely go
This is a dead end
And on it goes, someone begs for a broken nose!Under the lights
My justice reigns
Crossing my line will put you in pain
You'll be praying to god, "when will it end?"
This is not a fight you can win here my friendDo you really wanna see
I'm the man I claim to be
This is a bad idea
Before you drop the gloves
Say bye to those you love
And those teeth you remember
And on it goes, someone begs for a broken nose!Under the lights
My justice reigns
Crossing my line will put you in pain
You'll be praying to god, "when will it end?"
This is not a fight you can win here my friend(SOLO)Under the lights
My justice reigns
Crossing my line will put you in pain
You'll be praying to god, "when will it end?"
This is not a fight you can win here my friendOHHH YEAH!
