Gullible Few

Dan Sultan

Tenderness spent, pockets open I'm comin' round to collect my tokennow here we are here we areI could be blind for the rest of my life I can't be wrong all of the timeLove can be true for the gullible few ooooh yeah.Here in the house of half measures you and I don't care for the treasures now the ceilings fallin' in and it's time for a changeI could be blind for the rest of my life I can't be wrong all of the timeLove can be true for the gullible few ooooh yeah.oooooo now i can be blind for the rest of my life and i can't be wrong all of the timelove can be true for the gullible few the gullible few
the gullible few
