Remember

Nick Carter

I've got my bags packed ready to roll
I'm hitting dirt I'm on the road
You told me I would be your only one
Now it's a shame, shame, shame cause baby I've got to goGirl you turned back time
Now I'm taking back mine
I'm breaking down these walls
You built for me
Now I see the light
Clear I stay at night
I'm out of sight, out of my mind
I'm castaway
Cause I don't wanna remember
Don't wanna remember
No, I don't wanna remember
Don't wanna rememberI hit the gas and in a flash it gone
I'm going fast cause it gotta move on
You made me crash my heart and watch it bleed
But it's a shame, shame, shame I let it happen to meGirl you turned back time
Now I'm taking back mine
I'm breaking down these walls
You built for me
Now I see the light
Clear I stay at night
I'm out of sight, out of my mind
I'm castaway
Cause I don't wanna remember
Don't wanna remember
No, I don't wanna remember
Don't wanna rememberCause I don't wanna remember
Don't wanna remember
No I don't wanna remember
Don't wanna rememberNow you wish right now I was by your side
Now I just don't remember you were in my life
Cause I don't wanna remember
Don't wanna remember
