Hallowed Hag

Jonathan Boulet

You're on the death express

That's why we're here
Paying our respects
On the death express

Who's kicking up a storm?
I heard it all on the count of 4
Kicking up a storm

Do you think we care
About your dancing?
Don't think don't think don't think

Do you think it?s fair
The same old beat?
Not me not me not me
