Always Tomorrow

Tessanne Chin

When the silence is dangerous
And there's no one to trust
When you're caught between the rock and the rage
It's time to turn the pageYou find yourself in the midst of the struggle
And soon enough you'll emerge from the rubble
Stronger than ever, just hold it together
I knowWhen the rain start falling
Hold your head up high
And don't you cry, you'll be fine
'Cause there's always tomorrowWhen the rain start falling
And the sun don't shine
Don't you cry, I'm on your side
'Cause there's always tomorrow
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
'Cause there's always tomorrowWhen you feel like you've lost another day
To the powers at play
Have it quit your mind, it's about time that you find
A silver liningOne of a kind but you're never alone
There's no need to face this all on your own
'Cause we're stronger together, withstand any weather
I knowWhen the rain start falling
Hold your head up high
And don't you cry, you'll be fine
'Cause there's always tomorrowWhen the rain start falling
And the sun don't shine
Don't you cry, I'm on your side
'Cause there's always tomorrow
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
'Cause there's always tomorrowWhen it feels like there's too much to swallow
Down on your luck, good times, they will follow
Believe me when I say there's always tomorrowWhen the rain start falling
Hold your head up high
And don't you cry, you'll be fineWhen the rain start falling
And the sun don't shine
Don't you cry, I'm on your side

'Cause there's always tomorrow
