Too Pretty

Big Dismal

Its obvious what you think about me
Cause you wont even give me a chance
I dont mind what you say about me
When you talk to your friends all the timeWas it something I said to you
To make you think that I was just a fool?
Or maybeYoure too pretty
Youre too pretty for me
I dont want to let you downYoure too pretty
Youre too pretty for me
I dont want to wear that crownOne day youre gonna wish youd given me a chance
When Im standing on top of the world
And youre stuck down there in your fantasy
With all your diamonds and pearlsWas it something I said to you
To make you think that I was just a fool?
Or maybeYoure too pretty
Youre too pretty for me
I dont want to let you downYoure too pretty
Youre too pretty for me
I dont want to wear that crownI never got up the nerve
To say to you what I wanted to
If I had a choice you know that I would Turn back the hands of time
