Truth (Anna Yvette Remix)

Tristam

The truth is running in our blood
The answers
are lying here withinThe truth
is running in our blood
The answers
are lying here withinThere is no secret
There is no mystery untold
The love in each of us
Is all we really need to knowI'll break away (break away)
I'll break away (break away)
I'll break away from the chains, from the pullI'll break away (break away)
I'll break away (break away)
I'll break away from the chains, from the pullThe truth is running in our blood
The answers are lying here within
