Memories

Mary J Blige

Hmm, hmm
Whoa, oh
Oh yeah
Sitting here all alone on Valentine?s Day
I really wanna call him up
But my pride is all in the way, hey, hey, hey
Picture?s getting clearer
I see what?s been going wrong for years
The once you say you?re far, really are so near
I?m thinking of
Roses that you sent to me
All the kisses that you gave to me
Memories of what we used to be
All alone this special day
Thinking ?bout the time you went away
Valentine?s Day will never be the same
How come men nowadays
Bring you so much joy and so much pain
Can anybody help me? I think I?m going insane
Valentine?s Day will never be the same
'Cause I?m think about you always
I cherish everything you gave to me
I?m thinking of
Roses that you sent to me
All the kisses that you gave to me
Memories of what we used to be
All alone this special day
Thinking ?bout the time you went away
Valentine?s Day will never be the same
You took my love for granted
Then you, you mean to think that
Everything was fine between me and you
Every time this day comes around
I wanna feel your touch
I can't believe what you did to me
I hate cha, did me wrong
But still I must move on
I gotta move on
Roses that you sent to me

All the kisses that you gave to me
Memories of what we used to be
All alone this special day
Thinking ?bout the time you went away
Valentine?s Day will never be the same
Roses that you sent to me
All the kisses that you gave to me
Memories of what we used to be
All alone this special day
Thinking ?bout the time you went away
Valentine?s Day will never be the same
Roses that you sent to me
All the kisses that you gave to me
Memories of what we used to be
All alone this special day
Thinking ?bout the time you went away
Valentine?s Day will never be the same
