Change Of Heart

Floorpunch

Time and time again,
we try to hang onto our friends
We've got to forget what has us divided
It's time to make amends
We've got to work things out
We can't go on this way
Overlook our differences
And hear what each other have to sayI know you changed and it hurt so bad
What the fuck can I do
Everyone makes their choices in life
It's something we all go through
