I Am Going

Randy Travis

I am going where I've never been
I am going where there's no sin
There I will join my lord and my friends
Yes I am going where I've never beenDon't be crying thoses bitter tears
Don't be crying cause I'm not here
I'll be happy for the first time in years
So don't be crying those bitter tearsI have travelled life's weary highways
And my last journey is at hand
I can hear the Angels calling
And I am going where I've never been
