Other Arms

Robert Plant

Lay down your arms, oh
Now baby, let me sleep at night
Lay down your arms baby, oh
I'll make everything all rightWords you been using hurtin' me so
Some day you're gonna regret
Way friends are talkin', guess you'll never know
This battle ain't been won yetLay down your arms baby, oh, oh
When the deal is done
Lay down your arms, child
Used to be your only oneWeapon you're using is hurtin' me bad
What do you hope to achieve?
I said your fighting is leaving me sad
That's not the way it should beSo if I find a love, oh, if I find a way
Oh, if I find a dream, oh, if I find a way
You know that I will
Yes, you knowLay down your arms, oh
Please release me, let me go
Lay down your arms, baby
Now surrender to me, don't you goIf I find a love, oh oh, if I find a way, oh, oh
If I find a dream, oh, oh, if I find a way
You know that I, you know that I
You know I will, but you know, ohShe's gone, she's gone
(I'm not a prisoner of the big parade)
She's gone, gone, gone
(I'm not a prisoner of the big parade)She's gone, she's gone, gone
(I'm not a prisoner of the big parade)
She's gone, she's gone
(No, I'm not, no I'm not)Oh, oh, my baby's gone
(Lay down your arms)
I don't know where I'm gonna find her
'Cause my baby's gone
(Lay down your arms)Is she over here? Is she over there? Is she over here?
Yes I know, oh, I gotta find her
Oh, is she here? Is she there?
I really [Incomprehensible], I wanna find her(Lay down your arms)
Lay down your arms child
(Just lay down your arms)
