Do You

Bro'Sis

This is Shay
Hila

Giovanni
Faiz
RossDo you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they sayI was never the one to do
The things all the people do
I'm the one to decide if
What I do is coolNever do I listen to
What my parents try to tell me
A regular nine to five
Is not a part of my dream(What, ah)
I always did my own things
And set my own kind of trends
I like buying new sneakers
An big baggy pants
I like going to the movies with a girl in my arm
I like boys that are cute
With a-lots of charm
I like going to a party, dance the night away
Sometimes I stay in bed
And I sleep all day
And if I don't like something,
I'll be quick to let you know
And this is how the story goes!Do you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they sayDo you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they sayI'll always be curious
About a whole of stuff
And my mind always don't stop
Until you get enoughIf I see something that I like, I go and grab it
And if I can't get it

On the same dayHey, that'll be another
Just don't sweat it
You have to keep your head up
And go for your dreams,
Sometimes a little harder
Than what it may seemAnd believe in yourself and go
For what you know,
Sometimes it's fast,
Sometimes it's slow
There are moments in your life
You wanna scream out loud,
And the others may wonder
What this is all aboutIt's just us six
Getting ready for the show
And this is how the story goesDo you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they sayDo you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they sayNot one of y'all can hate on me or can now,
None of y'all can put no weight on me, you feel me
'Cause I'm out on own with it
And don't get mad 'cause I didn't need you to get it, hear me now
I hold it down each and everyday
And make sure I do my own thing my own way
So listen up you can hate if you want to Front if you want to
But you'll never ever turn me into youHeyDo you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they sayDo you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they sayDo you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
To go your very own way?
No matter what they say
Do you ha ha ha
