All Over the World (Cahill Radio Edit)

Ola

Now, why you move so damn slow, pick it up
You gotta let it go
So are you in or out, now what's your game
You gotta let me knowCause time is running out in here
And life starts wearing me out
And I would take you anywhere
You got one second to goJust follow me all over the world
And you won't even notice what hit you babe
Just follow me all over the world
And life will never treat you the same againCause a jump like this, will mess you up
But I can't do less than this
Just follow me all over the world
And life won't treat you so badYou gotta let those flat beats move your feet
Baby just count on me
Just let your head go insane, lose your name
Be what you're made to beCause time is running out in here
You got one second to goJust follow me all over the world
And you won't even notice what hit you babe
Follow me all over the world
And life will never treat you the same againCause a jump like this, will mess you up
But I can't do less than this
Just follow me all over the world
And life won't treat you so badJust follow me all over the worldAnd you don't know me yet, but I don't care
And you don't know me yet, but I don't careI wanna make this tonight
Let's do this alright
Next flight is your flight
You got it girl rightCan't stop this, tonight
Don't be so uptightI want you to follow me all over the world
And you won't even notice what hit you babe
Follow me all over the world
And life will never treat you the same againFollow me all over the world
And you won't even notice what hit you babe
Follow me all over the world
And life will never treat you the same againCause a jump like this, will mess you up
But I can't do less than this
Just follow me all over the world
And life won't treat you so bad
