Brave

ä¼´éƒ½ç¾Žå-•

Reach out, numb and I can't see
Black out, guess I'm the one that cant breathe
He's there layin and freezing,
He's scared, venting releasing
Rewind, just no never know whats behind, does any body know trust?
In fact, has anybody seen me?
Look back, life was but a day dream.
Chorus
??????
Are all my loved ones breathing?
And does it matter at all?
If i was brave enough to fall, i'd find the answers
And now my backs against the wall, forever

Big world and I am feeling small, more slow than faster
And i know i dont have it all... together
Today, everybodies slacking
And then, wishing I was, back in, highschool, where everything's easy
Who cares just how were teasing?
In fact, now that its the present, im relaxed, everybodies stressin'
I dont know if i can take this, but I'm somehow gonna make it through
Chorus
What you see is what you get
Must I remind this every sceond of my life to everyone who cant seem to find their home?
Chorus
