Wake Up With a Smile

Consumed

verse A:
I will be there for the wake up and take you back with me.
I will wake up with a smile, just for you.
verse A.
I've seen the visions on the t.v.
They're not half as good as you
and I like the silly things that you do.
I like to watch her while she's sleeping.
It settles me to know.
From the start, from the heart, 'cause she's smart.
And you hit the mark.
Don't you breathe a word of what you've seen and heard.
I've seen the visions on the t.v.
They're not half as good as you and I love the stupid things that you do.
verse A (3x)
'Cause you're smart and you hit the mark.
You don't breathe a word of what you've seen and heard.
She's smart.
