Addicted

Ace Young

No, noI gotta let it out, baby, here's my confession
My hands are shakin' and it's close to obsession
This poundin' in my chest been goin' twenty four seven
You'd think the pain by now would make me learn my lessonBut there's no way to win when I push you away
Wanna do anything if you ask me to stayI'm so addicted, you're everything I want
No complication, you know you had me from the jump
I'm so addicted, do what you wanna do
I'm committed, addicted to you, I'm addictedIt's cruel to call it love when it's lust and desire
I feel like I can fly, then you cut down the wire
Even though I know I'm sinkin' lower by the hour
Can't change the fact that I'm a slave to your power'Cause my life is a lock and you hold the key
And you tighten the chains when I try to break freeI'm so addicted, you're everything I want
No complication, you know you had me from the jump
I'm so addicted, do what you wanna do
I'm committed, addicted to youYou've given enough just to let me breathe
You keep me alive just to watch me bleed
I crawl down on my knees for youYou've made damn sure that I won't forget
Your love's a drug I could never quit
All the things that you do, you do, you doBut there's no way to win when I push you away
Wanna do everything if you ask me to stayI'm so addicted, you're everything I want
No complication, you know you had me from the jump
I'm so addicted, do what you wanna do
I'm committed, addicted to youI'm so addicted, you're everything I need
My medication, you're the lie that I believe
I'm so addicted, there's nothin' I can do
I'm committed, addicted to youAddicted, committed, addicted to you
Addicted, committed, addicted to you
Addicted, committed, addicted to you
Addicted, committed, addicted to you
