master

The James Muller Quartet

take this, you know what i want you take what you need i'll give whatever it takes to get you off you live with no direction the chains that hold you to the life orgasmic constant pleasure i can grant you the addiction beg to your master from fucking pain flee from reality
let me dominate you fantasy and hardcore relief don't let that motherfucker rape you blind take control of every avenue leave it all behind this is what you deserve beg for me i give you what you need
cut and bleed rituals come hither creed break away pleasure awaits your heart rush inside before it tears you apart right now degeneracy takes control of your mind immortal thoughts encompass all that you'll find just follow your emotions fall into my world
let the rest take direction crawl into my world
