Fuel My Fire

Prodigy

I've got a word of thanks, thanks that I'd like to say
For the way that I feel, the way that I feel today
Got stacks, got stacks
Stacks of chips on my shoulder in everything I do
'Cuz I made, I made
I made the mistake of trusting you
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
People like you just do
You liar
You liar
You liar
You liar
Yeah, my layers are thick and I got bad attitude
Yeah, that knife in my back has fingerprints that belong to you
Got a grudge, got a grudge, got a grudge that I'm holding
For as long as I live
'Cuz you lied, you lied, you lied on my face
And that's something that I won't forgive
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
People like you just do
You liar
You liar
You liar
You liar
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
Yeah, people like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
Yeah, people like you just do
You liar
You liar
You liar
You liar
