Spit It Out

Ana Johnsson

Spit it out, ya heard, you got something to say
Wanna tell me something, tell it to my face
The streets are talking, got rumors starting about meI've been getting funny looks lately
And this strange feeling is weighting me down
Well, I guess that with friends like you, I need no enemies
No I'll never ever take you backSpit it out, ya heard, you got something to say
Wanna tell me something, tell it to my face
The streets are talking, got rumors starting about meSuck it up, 'cause if you got a problem with us
Spit it out, it's okay, either speak or shut up
But I'll have you crawling if you're back talking meHow come you're spreading all these lies about me
I thought you were a friend of mine, well, I guess not
So you're all of a sudden little Miss Perfect now
Well, I'd be straining you out, but it's just not worth my whileSpit it out, ya heard, you got something to say
Wanna tell me something, tell it to my face
The streets are talking, got rumors starting about meSuck it up, 'cause if you got a problem with us
Spit it out, it's okay, either speak or shut up
But I'll have you crawling if you're back talking meLet it out, just spell it out
Want to flip your coins and show what you're about
No I won't miss you or the time we spent
'Cause you've got no clue how to treat a friendSpit it out, ya heard, you got something to say
Wanna tell me something, tell it to my face
The streets are talking, got rumors starting about meSuck it up, 'cause if you got a problem with us
Spit it out, it's okay, either speak or shut up
But I'll have you crawling if you're back talking meYeah, I'll have you crawling if you're back talking me
Yeah, I'll have you crawling if you're back talking me
