Noose

Nevid'

All of the days have been stolen
The people around me have all spoken
And I am the one slipping and sliding
When theres a noose looking for youYeah, yeah
Yeah, yeahNow that the smoke has all flown away
The people around me have all floated down stream
And I am there choking on bubbles, bubbles, bubbles, bubbles
Where theres a noose looking for youYeah, yeah
Yeah, yeahNow that my skin is all frozen
The ants will eat me till Im a carcass, bones still Laying in forms as I was chosen
And all at once the noose is youIts hard to move when the noose is you
When all along the noose is you
Theres no more noose looking for you
