The Flood

Take That

Standing

On the edge of forever

At the start of whatever

Shouting love at the worldBack then

We were like cavemen

But we mapped the moon and the stars

Then we forgave themWe will meet you where the lights are

The defenders of the faith we are

When the thunder turns around

They'll run so hard we'll tear the ground awayYou know no one dies

In these love-drowned eyes

Through our love-drowned eyes

We'll watch you sleep tonightAlthough no one understood, we were holding back the flood

Learning how to dance the rain

We were holding back the flood

They said we'd never dance againBleeding

But none of us leaving

Watch your mouth, son

Or you'll find yourself floating homeHere we come now on a dark star

Seeing demons, not what we are

Tiny minds and eager hands

Will try to strike but now will end today There's progress now

Where there once was none

Where there once was, ah

Then everything came alongAlthough no one understood, we were holding back the flood

Learning how to dance the rain

There was more of them than us

Now they'll never dance againAlthough no one understood there was more of them than us

Learning how to dance the rain

We were holding back the flood

They said we'd never dance againWe will meet you where the lights are

The defenders of the faith we are

When the thunder turns around

They'll run so hard we'll tear the ground awayAlthough no one understood there was more of them than us

Learning how to dance the rain

There was more of them than us

Now they'll never dance againNow we'll never dance again
