Our Little Secret

dasaten, Rexy

JFK:
Nobody asking me questions
Nobody planning a coup
Nobody with their suggestions of what not to do
Nobody taking our picture
Nobody turning the screw
It's our little secret...just us two.
Outside of this room, there's a cold war
But you'd never know it in here
There's just no defense, the heat's too intense
And oh, how it rises, whenever you're near.
Yes, every president has one
A pleasure that's strictly taboo
It's our little secret, just us two.
Marilyn: C'mere, baby.
JFK:
No FBI getting nervous (Marilyn: Mmmmm)
No CIA peeking through. (Marilyn: peeking through)
I have my own secret service
To take care of you (Marilyn: to take care of me and you)
No one from Time or from Newsweek

Both:
To document our rendezvous
It's our little secret, just us two
JFK:
In politics you must be careful
Both:
Your bedfellow may be a shark
JFK:
From the left, from the right
Baby, turn off the light
Both:
It's easy to do what you must in the dark.
JFK:
So let's do it now, for our country (Marilyn: all for country)
And raise the old red, white and blue (Marilyn: blue)
Both:
It's our little secret, just us two.

Just us two
Just us two
Shhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
