Threads of Sincerity

Life In Your Way

Anywhere I go
Anywhere my feet take me
Your compassion never fails meI've got so far away
Alone and close to giving up
Can I lay down these ways, not in vain?Your love is the greatest thing
I will look ahead to see the truth in this
To see the truth in meCloser, closer to you
Closer, closer to you
Closer, closer to you
Closer, closer to youI need it to last more than a moment
These times with you, the rhythm skips a beat
And I hold the weight of the world
To the touch I ache to the look I seem to be a mistake
A mistakeThese mistakes I've made
Hold me back from the days
I should spend with you
To be long term and long lasting
To overcome the lines and rulesThere are days where I'm right
Where I'm supposed to be Mostly I am far awayLearning to live the way I should Learning to love the way you would
I'm learning to love the way you wouldAnd today it's been made clear
That I've walked so far alone
It's easy wanting something more
I will dive, I will dive, I will dive, I will dive
(Closer)
I will dive, I will dive closer to you
