Uncertainty

Seti

Looking up I see your point of view
Is nothing more than a picture of you
It's not enough to know but dark enough to go
I wonder if your heart steps in my shoes
And when I hear those things you're saying
When I see those eyes you gave me
Seems the games I know you're playing
End up to be uncertainty
Images of you are sinking
Better yet I'm still thinking
This won't be the life I'm dreaming
When all I feel's uncertainty
All messed up yet I am self assured
Delivering is not a strength you hold
It's leaving me nowhere, there's nothing left we share
A rising moon I fear's about to fall
And when I hear those things you're saying
When I see those eyes you gave me
Seems the games I know you're playing
End up to be uncertainty
Images of you are sinking
Better yet I'm still thinking
This won't be the life I'm dreaming
When all I feel's uncertainty
There's a shadow on my wall
And if my world should fall
Would you come to rescue me at all?
And when I hear those things you're saying
When I see those eyes you gave me
Seems the games I know you're playing
End up to be uncertainty
Images of you are sinking
Better yet I'm still thinking
This won't be the life I'm dreaming
When all I feel is uncertainty
