She's Got A Way

Bryan Adams

She's got a way of getting inside your soul
She'd breach the walls of Jericho
Make you fall like virgin snow
She's got a smile, makes you forget the things
You're only just thinking about
It kind of turns me inside out
And if I try to conceal, she's got a way to reveal
I feel so naked, I feel so totally exposed
It's such a mystery, how she seems to know, every part of me
I feel so shaken, it's like everybody knows
Whenever she touches me, like no one else, feel as much as me
Yeah, she's got a way
And she's got a way of taming the wild in me
With patience and serenity
I'm drowning in her revery
And I can't run away she's got a way to make me stay
I feel so naked, I feel so totally exposed
It's such a mystery, how she seems to know, every part of me
Hey, I feel so shaken, it's like everybody knows
Whenever she touches me, no one else can feel as much as me
Oh, 'cause she's got a way
Oh, she comes to me like rain falls down my window
And sure as night will follow day, I'll surrender
She's got a way
I feel so naked, I feel so totally exposed
It's such a mystery, how she seems to know every part of me
I feel so shaken, I'm shaking, it's like everybody knows
Whenever she touches me, no one else can feel as much as me, no
'Cause she's got a way, she's got a way
Such a mystery, she seem to know, every part of me
Oh, she's got a way, she's got a way
Oh, oh, oh, she's got a way
