Sometimes a Song

Dan Fogelberg

Listen to me and I will try to sing you a song that makes you see how much I long to be beside you and how much you mean to mesometimes a song's the only way to show you my heart will never stray so if I can't find words to tell you I'll sing what I cannot saylet me sing you a field full of waving flowers I'll sing of the sun on the sea oh this is the way that you make me feel every time you smile at me will you only smile for meat times it must seem I take for granted all of the little things you do know in your heart I'm so enchanted and still so in love with you hmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm - instrumentalsometimes a song's the only way to show you my heart will never stray
so if I can't find words to tell you
will you only smile for melisten to me and I will try to sing you a song that makes you see
and how much you mean to me yes and how much you mean to me
