Run With the Wolf

Rainbow

In the light of day
You can hear the old ones say
Was the sound last night the wind
Can you feel the change begin
By the fall of the show
A single soul will go
With foot steps on the white
There's an unholy lightThere's a hole in the sky
Something evil's passing by, what's to come?
When the siren calls you go
To run with the wolfWhen the world makes a turn
The eyes of one will learn
That a sound just like the wind
Only makes the change begin
By the end of the rain
The feelings passed again
From the things that snap and bite
An unholy lightThere's a hole in the sky
Something evil's passing by, what's to come?
When the siren calls you go
To run with the wolfThere's a break in the ground
Like the swirling waters
Angry as they pull you down
When the siren calls you go, yeah
To run with the wolf
Run with the wolfThere's a hole in the sky
Something evil's passing by, what's to come?
When the siren calls you go, yeah
To run with the wolf
Run with the wolfLike a beast in a field
You know his fate is still
To run with the wolf
Oh, run with the wolfSeas that make you know it's late
Now we go
To run, run, run, run, run, run, run, run with the wolfRun with the wolf
Run with the wolf
Run with the wolf
Run, run, run, there we go
Run, run, run, run

Run with the wolf
