End Over End

Foo Fighters

Burn all the candles out
Make a wish but not aloud
Relive the here and now
To see you now and thenI'm a revolvin' door
I've seen it all before
I will begin again
But I can't start until I've seen the endI took a look around
I believe in hand me down
The treasure's that we've found
When we were brand newNow that we're old and worn
A little ripped and torn
One day we'll be reborn
One day I will meet you right back hereOnce again, wait
Stop me, so I can beginEnd over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'End over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'I'm feelin' out of luck
Maybe I just feel too much
That old familiar touch
Always stained my skinThe good in everyone
The ties we left undone
The heart that moves your blood
All the things that bring me right back hereOnce again, wait
Stop me, so I can beginEnd over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'End over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'End over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'End over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'

I'm circlin'Hey, once again, wait
Stop me, so I can beginEnd over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'End over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'End over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'End over end
End over end
End over end
I'm circlin'I'm circlin'
I'm circlin'
I'm circlin'
I'm circlin'
