Bow

Yung L.A.

Bow, bow, it's Shawn D
Bow none better than me
Bow your majesty
Bow before he
People say I'm chasing a dream
Tell me how the fuck do you see what I see
I remember be told that I would never succeed
It's funny how things change, know you want to be me
Just because I'm young, it doesn't mean
That I'm being pushed around behind the scenes
Thinking I'm a puppet on the string, not me, let me tell you
Don't you ever front on me, I'll be who I gotta be
Uomo, random got my back
So tell me what you think of that
I'm here to stay and that's a fact
So let me drop this on my track
I won't stop 'causing I never stop when my name drops
'Cause there ain't nobody like me Shawn D
I won't stop, 'causing I never stop when my name drops
'Cause there ain't nobody got a thing on me
Bow, it's Shawn D, bow, your majesty
I don't give a damn what they say
You ain't even happy unless you do it your way
I can see how much you wanna take my place

'Cause it's written all over your face
I'll never leave a job undone
Everything I touch, yeah you know it is bang on Thinking I won't last but I'm proving you wrong
If you think I'm sealing out, you don't know what I'm about
Uomo, random got my back
So tell me what you think of that
I'm here to stay and that's a fact
So let me drop this on my track
Uomo, random got my back
So tell me what you think of that
I'm here to stay and that's a fact
So let me drop this on my track
Yo, yo, straight from the t dot, oh mothafucka

Ain't nobody gonna hold me down
When you hear this joint you better bow down
Listen to what the fuck I'm saying
'Cause I ain't talking no shit, ya heard yours truly Shawn D
Uomo, random got my back
So tell me what you think of that
I'm here to stay and that's a fact
So let me drop this on my track
