Carnival (Remastered)

Project Pitchfork

Waste earth
yellow sand - no chance to live hopes have vanished
the drought makes me dream the carnival is in our town hopeful eyes
children laugh
vanished expectations
carnival
it's simply uncontrollable moving on through the sand
it's really unstoppable
destructive tracks in the land
the gift of explosions
the happiness of death
merciless it takes its way
the big machine
there it comes massive like a mountain the music invites us
to join the parade
it's simply uncontrollable
it's really unstoppable
