Fragile

Richard Anthony Jay

You've been biting bullets all these years, I know
There beside yourself, choking our tears
And you aced avoiding possibility
When you placed your bed's on bittersweet
Oh now don't you worry
No need to be sorry
time to still lightly
Cos the love you used to feel's still there, inside
It may be a faded photograph, but I know you care, so don't hide it
If you're scared, I'm here beside you,
If you get lost I'm here to guide you and I'll give you peace when peace is fragile
Love is all the good in you
Love is peace when peace is fragile

You've been going out of way to agree
Like you've been rubbing yourself all wrong just to be somebody else's genie
Catering to your disasters every need
Waiting to finally be set free
I said baby don't worry
Life will carry
Just take it slowly
Cos the love you used to feel's still there, inside
It may be a faded photograph, but I know you care, so don't hide it
If you're scared, I'm here beside you,
If you get lost I'm here to guide you
and I'll give you peace when peace is fragile
Love is all the good in you
Love is peace when peace is fragile
