Bleed Alone

Haste the Day

Selfishness has brought me to this place
Unreal desires have slit the throat of happiness
Holding on to the memories that will never be againBreaking the sacred vow taken a thousand times
Lies through the mouth of the one who believes
Wears the mask to cover all of the emptiness insideI bleed alone, my eyes fail me
I bleed alone, my eyes fail meI sink, can't swim, I'm drowning
Can't stay on top, can't move
I'm falling further away from youCan't breathe, can't fight, can't move
I'm only suffering
Because the focus is goneI bleed alone, my eyes fail meI sink, can't swim, I'm drowning
Can't stay on top, can't move
I'm falling further away from youCan't breathe, can't fight, can't move
I'm only suffering
Because the focus is goneSelfishness has brought me to this place
Unreal desires, they slit the throat of happiness
Holding on to the memories that will never be again
