Pretenders

Eric Turner

Theyre pretenders
Built up A silent wall
Theyre pretenders
Theyll take you for all you got
And I see your face and all that I know
Follows me down to the line
Theyre pretenders
Are breaking your other mind
So I walk the streets alone
Waiting for a sign
Im not coming home
Pretend that I dont mind
And is it only in my mind
Or am I seeing signs
And is it only in my mind
Or am I seeing signsTheyre pretenders
Built up A silent wall
Theyre pretenders
Theyll take you for all you got
And I see your face and all that I know
Follows me down to the line
These pretenders
Are breaking your other mind
Were in a race you know staying all the line
We are nothing more
Than the things we seem to hide
And is it only in my mind
Or am I seeing signs?
Theyre pretenders
Built up A silent wall
Theyre pretenders
Theyll take you for all you got
And I see your face and all that I know
Follows me down to the line
These pretenders
Are breaking your other mind
Ohhhhhhhhhhh..
Theyre pretenders
