Sugarbuzz

Marvelous 3

Well I started this story in the middle of the page
I remembered the lines and forgot my age
When somebody said my attitude was snottyThat's when you called and said, "Get out tonight"
I'll catch a late night movie on a light night flight
I'll be gettin' real drunk and making fun of everybodyAin't nobody gonna get me down
Something must have gone around, heyYou can stick that sign up your ass, the one that says it won't last
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife, I'll have the time of my life
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday nowOh well I went to a party last Saturday night
You know I think I got laid, then got in a fight
I don't remember that much but I think I liked itI saw some band called Roses and Socke
And they brought back the rock and the singer was cocky
Two years later I'm sure they forget about itAin't nobody gonna get me down
Something must have gone around, yeahYou can stick that sign up your ass, the one that says it won't last
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife, I'll have the time of my life
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Yeah yeah yeahCome on
You can stick that sign up your ass, the one that says it won't last
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife, I'll have the time of my life
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher
